

Joseph K. Daher

Chief Executive Officer

Joseph Daher is the Chief Executive Officer of Almajabani General Contractors since January 2014. J. Daher has 38 years of construction and management experience and a diversified portfolio spreading over infrastructure projects, airports, military facilities, public and commercial buildings and most recently a substantial involvement in the mega Riyadh Metro Project. In his position, he leads the company's 15,000 employees, its operation consisting of a three billion USD backlog, and is responsible for the company's growth and continued striving to be one of the leading contractors in Saudi Arabia and the region.

Prior to this position, he served as the Executive Vice President for Operations, a position through which he contributed to the execution of mega projects such as the Dir'a Al-Jazira Project, Border Demarcation between KSA and neighboring countries, prestigious airports construction and renovation and the Riyadh Airbase Road Projects. His talent and earned trust helped in 2013 in teaming up Almajabani with International Giants such as Bechtel, Siemens and CCC to build the Riyadh Metro Project.

J. Daher's leadership skills helped deliver projects successfully, on time and to high quality standards. He earned the respect of his Clients mostly governmental agencies. He is a driving force behind an objective driven staff continuously aspiring to excellence and endeavoring to preserve a reputation second to none in the construction industry.
